In many faith traditions the physical senses were key to experiencing the Divine. The desert fathers believed our five physical senses opened a spiritual sense. The sense of sight could lead us to seeing with the eyes of love, and hearing could lead us to listening for the still, small voice within.

At this retreat we'll dive into the idea that the Divine is everywhere present; we only need to open our eyes and ears, and learn to use our spiritual senses to get in touch with our own inner mystic!

Facilitated by Rev. Sandy Boyer

Rev. Sandy pioneered Unity of Hagerstown in 2007 and serves there today. She has led retreats and taught classes within various New Thought ministries for two decades. She currently serves as Coordinator on the Interfaith Team with the Hagerstown Area Religious Council (HARC).
