Noach Hacker, Minister of Economic Affairs

Economic Mission, Embassy of Israel, Washington, D.C.

Presentation: "An Update on Israel with the Minister of Economic Affairs"

Due to recent events in Gaza and the war with Hamas, Minister Hacker has changed the topic of his presentation to "An Update on Israel with the Minister of Economic Affairs." This topic is timely and replaces the previously planned topic, "An Overview of the Economy of Israel." His perspective will help address concerns all of us may have over the recent tragic turn of events in Israel.

Minister Noach Hacker, our guest speaker, is the Minister of Economic Affairs, representing Israel's Ministry of Finance. Minister Hacker, comes from the Embassy of Israel in Washington, D.C.

The Minister was born in Jerusalem, Israel. He has a BA in Social Sciences from Bar Ilan University, and his MA in social sciences, specializing in international economic influence from the University of Haifa. In the last five years, Minister Noach Hacker has served as director and vice president to one of the largest media companies in Israel. Before that, Noach served over 10 years in various positions in the Ministry of Finance, including Deputy Director of the Budget department. During that time, Noach led various reforms on the Israeli economy, orchestrated the construction of the budget department and its approval in the government and Knesset, and led various economic legislations in the government. He is happily married and a father of four.

Minister Hacker has said he loves talking about Israel. He is known as a speaker who enjoys opportunities to promote understanding about Israel's challenges and accomplishments. He and his staff personally welcome occasions to strengthen bonds not only with the American Jewish community, but also our neighbors in the larger, community as well.

Refreshments will be served after the Program. Admission Donation: $18.00
